Re: Speeding Ticket & Unsafe Lane

Dear Mr. Wolfberg,

In these times where trust and professionalism are merely catch phrases, it is refreshing to actually deal with an attorney that embodies a high degree of ethical standards as apparently you do. I was honestly skeptical initially about doing business with an attorney I found on the internet. After speaking to you and through email correspondence, I quickly grew confident that you would do your best to resolve my situation. You performed above and beyond my expectations. I have no reservations about offering my recommendation to anyone in need of a thoroughly competent attorney.

Sincerely yours,

Thomas A. Nocella
